

SGNA Advanced Associate's Program Module Descriptions

Module 1: Communication

The purpose of this module is to provide tools to communicate effectively and diplomatically and provide skills in handling difficult work situations/co-workers.

The learning outcomes of this module are to:

- Define communication
- Discuss reasons to communicate
- Name methods of communication
- List barriers to effective communication
- Discuss how to overcome the barriers to communication

Module 2: Equipment

The purpose of the Equipment Module is to provide an overview on common equipment, accessories and its indications.

The learning outcomes of this module are to:

- Describe colonoscopy and esophagogastroduodenoscopy.
- Discuss diagnostic and therapeutic procedures that may be performed during endoscopy.
- Discuss the indications for diagnostic and therapeutic procedures performed during endoscopy

Module 3: Emergency

The purpose of the Emergency module is to review common causes of GI bleed, associates role in management of GI Bleed and techniques used to stop GI Bleed

The learning outcomes of this module are to:

- Identify common causes of GI Bleed
- Describe associates role in GI Bleed therapeutics
- Discuss associates role in care of patient with GI Bleed